Saint John Paul II
pray for us.

April 28, 2019

The first Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. St. John Paul II said that there is nothing that man needs more than God’s mercy. This has become a special feast day when God’s mercy is offered to us in abundance. Join us as we celebrate the Feast of Mercy.

“Speak to the world about My mercy; let all mankind recognize My unfathomable mercy. It is a sign for the end times; after it will come (Diary, 230) the day of justice. While there is still time, let them have recourse to the fount of My mercy; let them profit from the Blood and Water which gushed forth for them.” (Diary, 848)

Let us
immerse
ourselves
in the ocean of
His endless
mercy!
